THE MELODY
RESTAURANT

The Melody Restaurant takes its name from one of Great Britain's most beloved films, "Melody" by Warris Hussein. This is a beautiful film about youth and first love and has gained something of a cult international following over the years. Melody was shot on-site at St Paul's in 1971 and features an iconic soundtrack by the Bee Gees and Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young.

HOUSE PRODUCERS

*At St Paul's, we care deeply about both the quality, consistency and sustainability of our wines.
We have taken all of these factors into account when choosing our house producers.*

OLD PRESS

The Old Press harks back to the beginnings of Australian wine production when settlers planted vines they bought with them from Europe. Production continues to this day, specialising in forward-thinking, fruit-driven wines.

House White
THE OLD PRESS CHARDONNAY

Australia

A juicy, sun-packed Australian white wine with peach and tropical fruit flavours.

CIRCA 1788 WINES

Despite the success of Australian wines, there are no native grape varieties, with the first vines brought to Australia around 1788 by early colonisers. The wines from Circa 1788 draw inspiration from this pivotal moment in Australian history to produce modern wines that are distinctly Australian in character.

House Red
CIRCA SHIRAZ VIOGNIER

Australia

*Aromas of blackberries and violets.
The palate is full-bodied with blackberry brambly fruits and coffee flavours within a soft tannin structure*
